Berlin!

Berlin: a Gateway to a brighter future!

Berlin is one of the most exciting and vibrant capitals of Europe, a magnet for young people who want to pursue their life and career aspirations while living in a metropolis that offers a high standard of living, a lively nightlife and excellent public transportation facilities at reasonable prices. With its enormous historical heritage and significance Berlin is a beloved destination of tourists from all over the world and over the last few years it has witnessed an upsurge in the number of visits, closing in on Paris and London.

Thanks to the affordable costs of living and its tuition-free universities, offering a wide range of courses in numerous fields of study, Berlin is becoming the point of reference of an increasing international student community. Furthermore, its renowned research institutes, orchestras, museums and its growing importance as centre of political decision within the EU make the German capital a rising star in the European realm of culture, politics, media, and science.

Notwithstanding the current economic crisis besetting many European countries, the German economy has continued to grow becoming one of the top destinations for job seekers. In this respect, the growing number of start-ups and innovative businesses mushrooming in Berlin are transforming the city in an ideal hub and career springboard for young European graduates in search for their first work experience.

Who we are and what we do...

Based in central Unter den Linden at a stone's throw from the world-famous Brandenburger Tor, Globtrain is an intermediary agency specialised in the organization and coordination of EU-funded mobility projects (LLP 2007-2013: Leonardo, Erasmus, Comenius, Grundtvig, Trasversale, Jean Monnet).

We support European sending institution in the organisation of their EU funded learning and training projects and take very good care of the participants coming to Berlin.

Our agency offers a wide range of services in line with the needs of the sending organisations, the aims of the mobility projects, as well as the education background and professional aspirations of the participants to the European Union learning programmes.

Globtrain has well-established partnerships with local public institutions, language schools, chambers of commerce, companies and start-ups in business sectors as diverse as tourism, new and digital media, marketing, architecture, design, fashion, food and beverage, law and more.

What can we offer your candidates?

Globtrain GbR. and its experienced staff will be able to:

Ensure the most suitable internship and training placements in accordance with the participants' educational background, professional curricula and project goals;

Facilitate communication between the participants and the hosting organisations interested in offering internship positions;

Find centrally located and fully furnished apartments where to host the participants for the whole duration of their stay.

Pick up the participant at the airport and accompany them to their accommodation;

Provide Welcome-Kit comprising basic information on the city and advice on the best local transportation solutions;

Book intensive language courses, 5 different levels, 20 hours/week or tailor-made language courses focusing on a specific field;

Organise regular informal get-togethers with the participants to socialise, share experiences and monitor the internship;

Prepare final report and certificates (Europass mobility, school attendance, etc.);

Ensure a continuous support and assistance to the participants throughout their stay in Berlin.

Some Numbers we are proud of...

Despite its recent foundation Globtrain GbR prides itself of having managed the international mobility of more than 400 participants coming from different European countries.

Thanks to the high-quality internship placements we were to procure and the careful matching between candidates and companies, an average of 25 – 30% of our interns were offered either an internship extension or a work contract after the end of their respective mobility periods. In some fields, such as architecture and gastronomy, the percentage was close to 40%.

The number of partner companies that regularly employ our interns in different fields has grown fast. In May 2014 we can count in the cooperation of over 50 hosting organization that are willing to train and integrate our candidates with their teams.
